17. [REDACTED] CONSTITUENT Called Alison Kemp, in the office of Representative Ronald V. Dellum (D., Calif.), in response to her request a few days ago on behalf of a constituent. I advised her that the publication, "Organization and Economic Management in the USSR," could be obtained from the DOCEX, Library of Congress, and gave her the complete address, as well as the number of the publication. She thanked me for the information.

✓18. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Mary Lou Liggon, on the staff of the Senate Committee on Banking Subcommittee on Housing, in response to her recent request for a CIA publication for which she did not know the exact title. I told her we did not have a publication entitled "The Future of the Socialist Economy" but suggested if she could learn the exact name of the publication or the area of interest, maybe we could be of help. She thanked me for my call and said she would check further.

Regarding Ms. Liggon's request on behalf of her former employer, who is now associated with the University of California and wanted to be placed on a mailing list for unclassified publications, I advised her that he should check to see if the University of California subscribed to DOCEX, and if not, suggested that either the University or her former employer may wish to take a subscription.
